About

Did you know that by creating a creative & exciting space for children, we can also develop their cognitive, social, physical, and emotional abilities at the same time?

By applying HONPO wallpapers into indoor playground walls, you can get much more colors and creativity inside. Because our collections are not only designed to create visually appealing interiors, but also interiors that bring comfort and imaginative visuals for your children growth.

Hideaway

Breathe in, breath out. Life can be hectic. Nothing wrong with that, as long as you get your breaks. Here's a glade especially made for you.

Marstrand

In 1893, the artist Carl Larsson and his family spent their entire summer in the small seaside town of Sweden called Marstrand.

An abstract watercolor-style background featuring various geometric shapes. A large, muted green circle is in the top left. A yellow diagonal line is in the middle left. An orange square is in the middle right. A large, muted orange semi-circle is at the bottom. A teal vertical shape is on the far right. A white box with the text 'water-color' is centered.

color

A close-up of a wall with watercolor-style geometric shapes: a grey circle, a yellow line, an orange square, and a large orange semi-circle, all on a light background.

Geometry, Pastel

Geometric shapes and bright pastels create an airy and uplifting backdrop.

Mountain Range, Rose Tan

Create an entire mountain range, that makes you feel like in a place full of breeze.

Cosmos

A gradient of clouds on a clear sky punctuated by a multitude of stars. The cloudy lands thicken as they are high in the sky to touch the stars.

557565

Theme mural of clouds, moon and earth and planets as a popular design for the walls in playground rooms.
